

Lewis Clark
Quilts of Valor
April, 2023

April Sew Day

Monday, 4/3/23, at the First Church of God, beginning at 9AM. Bring your project, materials, tools and supplies, lunch and beverages, and nametag. For those looking for a group project, we'll use table risers to set up cutting stations to cut fabric scraps for LCQOV kits (2 1/2-4" strips, 3" x 6" blocks, etc.). If you have a favorite cutter and/or rulers, feel free to print them. There will also be several quilts needing the labels hand-stitched and the corners finished. Variety of options available for you! See you there.

Spring Luncheon – Thursday April 6

Luncheon – 11:30 at Ernie's Steakhouse. Let's celebrate Spring and our LCQOV successes. Door prizes and 50/50 drawing (bring your $$), plus share a favorite spring flower or garden vegetable. Did I mention Spring Bingo! We'll be in their separate room and will order individually from the menu. Because a count is needed for the room setup, please RSVP to Shelley—email at quilt4224@gmail.com or by text/phone call at 208-791-7039—by Tuesday, April 4.

Seaport Quilters Guild Quilt Show - The 2023 SQG Quilt Show is a week later this year—Saturday, April 29-Sunday, April 30. Please make this note on your calendar. Nancy Sattler and Judy Howard are in charge of this for our group.

One-on-One Awards – our Hospice volunteers, LCQOV members Sandy Berg, Barb Boland, and Dawna Glenn are very busy with LCQOV awards to Hospice patients, as well as some other duties they've taken on for the respective programs. Meanwhile, at Veterans Court in Nez Perce County, LCQOV members Betty Kendrick and Samy Owen, made LCQOV awards to four graduates in March. Congrats to them!

This is the photo from yesterday's presentation. This was coordinated by his sister and she was very, very thankful. James admired his quilt and ran his hands over the fabric several times when it was on his lap. He had several guests in attendance. He said Navy blue was his favorite color but would not talk about his time in the Navy." Mr. Baker served in the U.S. Navy from 1980-1986. His quilt was pieced by Susan Lawson; quilted by Cindy Paulsgrove (Priest River; and bound by Jean Martin.

LCQOV Request: One-on-One Award – 3/22/23:

This email is from Dawna Glenn: "This is the photo from yesterday's presentation. This was coordinated by his sister and she was very, very thankful. James admired his quilt and ran his hands over the fabric several times when it was on his lap. He had several guests in attendance. He said Navy blue was his favorite

Missouri Star Auction Follow-up:

In celebrating National Quilting Month, on the evening of March 29, the Missouri Star Quilt Company auctioned off 15 quilts with the proceeds benefitting the QOVF. The video is available on Facebook. Before the auction, the Missouri QOV coordinator awarded several quilts. It is quite nice but does take awhile to watch. They generated $13,949 for the QOV Foundation!

Mystery solved!

Thank you, Sandy Berg!
This was a fun challenge!

How it works: To take part in the Quilts of Valor Take Five go to the QOV website, click the "Register" button and fill out the form. During May 12

- May 20 walk/run your race by yourself, with friends or family, on the treadmill, in your neighborhood, or at the park. If walking/running is not your thing, make quilt blocks. How will you "take five"?

Block Challenge: Don't forget the Block challenge! Instructions can be found on the QOV website!