

Lewis Clark Quilts of Valor February, 2022

LCQOV National Sew Day & Awards

Saturday, 2/5/22, at First Church of God, 910 Sycamore, Clarkston – 9AM-2:30PM; Awards at 10AM. Bring your project, materials and necessary tools, mask, lunch money ($10) and beverages (ice tea is available at lunch). PLEASE WEAR YOUR NAME TAG! If you plan to attend and have not already done so, RVSP to Becky by Wed. 2/2/22. There will be prizes, too! Remember to sign up on the QOV website in order to have a chance at some great prizes from them!

#NSD2022

LCQOV Website: CHECK IT OUT

The LCQOV website is being updated/revised, and new information added (www.lcqov.weebly.com). Special thanks to Sandy Berg for setting up and maintaining our website for many years. As of January 2022, Nancy Sattler is our next webmaster. Becky continues the work on history updates and pictures to be added. We can “password protect” a secure, separate page for our LCQOV membership list, with names and email addresses only. If you don’t have info for another LCQOV member you want to contact, this is a resource available to you. If you do not want your name and email included in this secure list, let Becky know by Tuesday, 2/22/22.

At Long Last:

Kelly McKeehan awarded this quilt to Airforce Sr Airman Austin Winker in Lewiston on Jan. 31. Austin served 6 years in Germany and is now stationed in Arizona. Kelly made his QOV 4 years ago and it’s been waiting for his visit home. Pattern is Big Star Country, available at QuiltyGirl.com

Happy (and sad) ending.

Member Sylvia Demaris, of Dayton, came upon this double sided QOV at a Goodwill store. Fortunately, it had the label still on it – another reason why you should always, always, put a label on your quilt, and not just a Quilt of Valor! The maker was contacted, Diana King of Colfax. The quilt was awarded to a woman veteran in 2020 and this woman passed away last week. Thanks to Sylvia, the quilt be returned to Diana and she will find someone to re-award the quilt to. Now, the part that makes you want to gasp – Sylvia paid $7.99 for the quilt!!!

What’s New!!

This is a free pattern, “Beads”, available at Jordan Fabrics. It is very popular right now and is also called “Chandelier”. It is so easy and fun! Both Jordan Fabrics and Missouri Star have YouTube videos and are very helpful! It is great for a QOV and could use scraps!

On my recent trip to CA, I attended dinner with my sister and friends. Discovering that Gary was a Vietnam veteran, he eventually graciously said he would accept a QOV. Mailed to him in Dec., I received a very nice Thank You! He was amazed that I knew what the “Tap code” was.

The QOV National 2022 Block Drive

Sharon Ledbetter has already made up her version of the block, Floating Churn Dash! Good job, Sharon!

