

Lewis Clark Quilts of Valor Nov. 2022

LCQOV "TAKE 5" - 11/7/22—Mon. Sew Day
From Connie Lorenz, Team Leader for LCQOV Take5
9AM-2:30PM, First Church of God in Clarkston. Lunch is provided by the Planning Team, bring your own beverages. If you were not at the luncheon and plan to attend, please RSVP to Connie Lorenz by text to 208-791-7001 (for lunch count).

Remember your blocks! Bring six completed blocks, plus six more to make on sew day (for a top), or turn in six completed blocks, and work a different project or your own hand work. Any random blocks turned in will be assembled into kits.

Quilters' Exchange Table - If you wish to participate, bring up to five quilt-related items (rulers, patterns, tools) you no longer use. You may trade for the same number of items you brought. Any items left at end of day will be donated to OUI, unless you want your items back.

Thank You Sandy,
Nancy & Sandy's
sister!

At QOV retreat, we met some men who were planning a retreat at Camp Lutherhaven. These 3, of about 150 Catholic men who were there on Oct. 15, received Quilts of Valor thanks to Alice, Sandy Berg, and Nancy Larsen Powers. Their quilts were from the Al Lind collection, quilted and bound by Alice.

QOVF new All-Stars Quilts of Valor book –

This new book from QOVF contains 25 patterns for QOV quilts. Check it out on the QOVF website for more details about the book and the designers. The book is now available, and there are two ways to order: Individual price is $24.99 + $5 shipping charge; or Bulk purchase of at least 10 books - $15 each/free shipping. So LCQOV members may purchase the book for $15/free shipping, Becky will place a "bulk-purchase" order on 11/15 (payment due after the books arrive). You may add your name to the list at November Sew Day (11/7) or by contacting her by email: bmahurin2007@gmail.com, or by text at 208-791-8912 (include your name in the text message).

Persistence Pays: Dawna Glenn worked with Fred Fritz to originally schedule his award for the Elks Flag Day Awards on 6/10/22. Due to health issues with his wife and daughter, Fred had to cancel. Dawna stayed in contact with him to reschedule, as well as to assist with other needs for him and his family. Persistence paid off on 10/10/22, per this email from Dawna on 10/11/22: "When I got in my car leaving the VFW yesterday, I had a message from Cascadia that Fred's daughter was there visiting. So, I went over there pronto. I didn't have my notes with me so just winged it.

He admitted he's been hesitant to receive a QOV because he felt he didn't deserve one. But he said, with tears in his eyes, that he would proudly accept it on behalf of all those who never made it home. He said it was the most beautiful quilt he's ever seen. It was also his birthday." Fred served in the U.S. Army from 1955-1957. His QOV was pieced/bound by Vickie Storey; quilted by Nancy Sattler.

Fall Meeting Notes: Several people have stepped up to help with our group's needs. Thank you to those who have done so. Approximately 20 ladies attended the wonderful luncheon at Ernie's Steakhouse. Thanks Nancy Sattler and Vicki for the prep work!

Sunshine Lady

Karol Kirkland has stepped up to be our Sunshine Lady. If you know of anyone who needs a little pick me up, let her know.

Hint: Save those sewing machine needles to hang your pictures with – they do really well and make just small holes!
